The Mighty Nein consists of Yasha, the Aasimar Barbarian (Ashley Johnson), Beaugregard, the Human Monk (Marisha Ray), Mollymauk Tealeaf, the Tiedfling Blood Hunter and Caduceus Clay, the Firbolg Cleric (Taliesin Jaffe), Fjord, the Half-Orc Warlock/Paladin (Travis Willingham), Nott the Brave/Veth Brenatto, the Goblin/Halfling Rogue (Sam Riegel), Jester, the Tiedfling Cleric (Laura Bailey), and Caleb Widogast, the Human Wizard (Liam O'Brien). The class-specific sheets are the same basic style but also have places for tracking mechanics unique to that class. Adventure alongside Critical Role's Campaign 3 Thursdays at 7pm Pacific at twitch.tv/criticalrole and youtube.com/criticalrole. The link takes you to the permalink page. I've been using »the class-specific character sheets« lately because none of my active characters are multiclassed, but I also have »the multiclassing pack« and »the generic sheet«. That's much, much more intuitive for me, and makes remembering all my modifiers much easier. The sheet above, for example, I added an extra slot to the attacks table because that character weilds four weapons, and I created the cantrips box to keep my available cantrips close at hand. Can we see which ones you use? They also come with a custom font made specifically for the sheets, so they look so gorgeous and organized when the sheet is filled out!When you buy them, they come in both jpg format to be filled out in your art program of choice or a form-fillable pdf. The second campaign ended in June 2021 after 141 episodes. Only the 12 base classes are available, but the generic sheets work just fine with the expansion classes. Audio from Critical Role is available the following Thursday on the Critical Role podcast network (Spotify, Google Podcasts, Apple Podcasts, and more). Campaign 2 followed the Mighty Nein from fledgling adventurers meeting in a small town tavern in Trostenwald, to accidental pirates sailing the Lucidian Ocean off the Menagerie Coast, to diplomats who daringly stood between Wildemount's warring Dwendalian Empire and Kryn Dynasty, and finally to heroes, quietly fighting to save Exandria as they know it. this post is tagged as nsfw. My favorite thing about these sheets specifically is that the skills are listed alongside the ability they coincide with, rather than alphabetically in a box to the side. The first campaign ended in November 2017 after 115 episodes. Personally I like using the jpgs, because the simple lines and boxes are easy to replicate so that I can customize my sheets according to what I need most. this post is blacklisted because it contains multiple-words and is not fully visible on the index page. Campaign 1 of Critical Role centered on the ragtag group of heroes known as Vox Machina as they traversed the continent of Tal'Dorei and beyond—from the glimmering coastal capital city of Emon to the dark and mysterious northern city of Whitestone, and across the sea to the ancient and blessed city of Vasselheim. The bard sheet has a place to track inspiration dice and mark your college, the druid sheet has a place to list your circle and track wild shape uses, the fighter sheet has a place to track your maneuvers, and so on. Posted on Tuesday, 12 January 2021 biscuitcultist asked: In the tags from the character sheets post you mentioned the ones you've been using for 3 years. VOD is available immediately for Critical Role's Twitch channel subscribers and available on YouTube at 12pm Pacific the following Monday. click here to view it. Mighty Nein Character Stats Critical Role is a weekly livestreamed show that uses roleplaying game mechanics as a means to explore and develop stories from the vast fantasy world of Exandria, with sweeping narratives intricately woven through collaboration between Game Master Matthew Mercer and his fellow cast of veteran voice actors, including Ashley Johnson, Marisha Ray, Taliesin Jaffe, Travis Willingham, Sam Riegel, Laura Bailey, and Liam O'Brien. Their epic journey across the world and even to other planes of existence left both Vox Machina and Exandria forever changed. this post is tagged as multiple-words. NOTE: Because artificers and blood hunters aren't part of WotC's SRD, it's illegal for @r-n-w to make a class-specific character sheet or multiclassing sheet for them. Vox Machina consists of Pike Trickfoot, the Gnome Cleric (Ashley Johnson), Keyleth, the Half-Elf Druid (Marisha Ray), Percival "Percy" Fredrickstein Von Musei Klossowski de Rolo III, the Human Gunslinger (Taliesin Jaffe), Grog Strongjaw, the Goliath Barbarian (Travis Willingham), Scanlan Shorthalt, the Gnome Bard and Taryon "Tary" Darrington, the Human Artificer (Sam Riegel), Vex'ahlia, the Half-Elf Ranger (Laura Bailey), and Vax'ildan, the Half-Elf Rogue (Liam O'Brien). this post is blacklisted because it contains nsfw and is not fully visible on the index page. this post is blacklisted because it contains food and is not fully visible on the index page.
